Community Partnership Raises $10,000 for EHT School Programs

EGG HARBOR TOWNSHIP — The Community Partnership for Egg Harbor Township Schools, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit public charity, raised more than $10,000 September 17 at Hidden Creek Golf Club during a Wine Tasting, Gourmet Dinner & Live Auction held in honor and memory of Member Emeritus Chuck Donovan.

As vice president of the Community Partnership since 2007 and one of the founding fathers of the Egg Harbor Township Home and School Association, the Egg Harbor Township Education Foundation, and the Egg Harbor Township High School Interact Club, Chuck's memory was honored for his dedication to educational endeavors and initiatives and his unselfish spirit of giving back to the community.

Vintner Table Sponsors included Cooper Levenson Attorneys At Law, Shore Memorial Hospital, Somers Point Rotary Club and the Donovan family. The Sparkling Wine Gathering Sponsor was The Custard Hut; Al and Maggie Gutierrez were the Jazz Quartet Sponsors; Wine Sponsors included John Giemza from Circle Liquors and Ted dement from Winebow© Wines. Supporting Sponsors included Ocean City Home Bank and Drs. Angelo Sparagna and Julius Gall. Friends of the Foundation Sponsors included James E. Wren, Anne Christiansen, Mrs. And Mrs. Ian Dalzell, Senator James Whelan, Mr. and Mrs. Doebley, The Somers Point Rotary Club, and Marcia L. Coyle.

George Wilkinson, longtime AP and Honors Calculus Teacher and beloved track and football Coach at Egg Harbor Township High School served as comedy auctioneer during the event raising nearly $5,000.

Established in 2006, the Community Partnership has raised more than $100,000 for Capital Projects, Academic Enhancements, Technology Upgrades, and Extra-Curricular Activities in the District through grants, annual appeals, and special-event fundraising. Naming Opportunities in the district, planned giving, and real estate bequests are also available through the non-profit.
